EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Steven Laut (Reg. No. 47,736) on 16 September 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 13, "a upward channel" has been changed to "an upward channel".

In claim 3, line 2, "claim 1" has been changed to "claim 2".

In claim 11:

Lines 1-2, "method using an ADSL modem in a reverse direction, comprising" has been changed to "method comprising";

Lines 8-9, "by using an ADSL modem installed in a reverse direction in a transmission velocity" has been changed to "with an ADSL modem installed in a reverse direction in an upward transmission velocity"; and Lines 11-12, "a transmission velocity lower than that of a upward channel" has been changed to "a downward transmission velocity lower than that of an upward channel".

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to show or suggest that an ADSL modem is installed in a reverse direction for modulating monitored data and detected signals from a remotely monitored unit to a central office unit having an upward transmission velocity (bandwidth) higher than a transmission velocity of a downstream channel of the central office unit and for demodulating data transferred from the central office unit to the remotely monitored unit having a downward transmission velocity lower than a transmission velocity of an upstream channel of the remotely monitored unit.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
